Re : Patent # 7,021,437 (Expandable Luggage System)

Dear Commissioner,

Pursuant to the issuance of the above numbered patent, we sent in a certificate of Correction requesting a reissuance of this patent with the correct or "formal" drawings as had been supplied.

Since we did not hear back, in December of 2006 we called the Certificate of Correction office to ask for the status, and they claimed that nothing had been received and we must send in another request.

We sent in another Certificate of Correction on December 18th, 2006 and now, the form is sent back to us claiming :

- a. A letter of Transmittal is needed. This is contrary to what we were told during the original conversations with the Certificate of Correction office. Also, USPTO Inventor Assistance Line advises that no such form exists or is needed.
- b. It is claimed that the patent number on the Certificate of Correction form we sent is wrong. This claim is false.

We appreciate your assistance in resolution of this matter.

Sincerely,

Mohssen Ghiassi
